Located in Portal Vells, one of the most pictureque bays in Spain, this detached villa forms part of a residential complex overlooking the marina. The property is in need of renovation to create a stunning villa with spectacular views of the bay. Currently comprising an open plan living area and kitchen, three double bedrooms, two bathrooms (one ensuite), plus a terrace. A project has been created for contemporary styling to include a private swimming pool. The villa also includes an eight meter mooring within the marina.

This is a rare oppurtunity to acquire a villa in a very prestige location and with the potential to transform the current decor into a more upmarket designer styled home.
